S.A.R. PICNIC: This year we have again planned a picnic for the members of the Harris Ferry Chapter and their wives and hope you can all attend.

DATE: June 21st starting at 6:00 P.M.

COST: $3.00 per individual to help cover cost of food and use of building (If any one decides to bring a salad or side dish for the picnic, please contact Mrs. Stroh so that there will be no duplication)

LOCATION: At the Fishing Creek Valley Community Association building. To get there, turn off of either Front Street (Just beyond Ft. Hunter) or off of Route 22-322 throughway onto Route 443 (Fishing Creek Valley road) and travel east approximately 2½ miles and turn right on the driveway at the sign: FISHING CREEK VALLEY COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION - If you pass under a high voltage transmission line crossing the highway you know that you just missed the turnoff (The transmission line is about 50 yards beyond the turnoff). If convenient bring a folding lawn chair.

R.S.V.P. - LTC Stroh by June 17th (599-5117)

MAY 1981

The Pennsylvania Society, S.A.R. will convene in ANNUAL MEETING on Saturday, May 30, 1981 at the Sunbury-Selinsgrove Holiday Inn, Shamokin Dam, PA. This is on Route 11-15 approximately 4 miles north of Selinsgrove. The meeting starts at 9:00 A.M. Forms for registration and room reservation will be found in the Spring 1981 issue of the PENNSYLVANIA MINUTEMAN. If you can attend, do so as you will find it quite rewarding. If convenient notify the Chapter Secretary of your intent to attend, since our chapter is allowed a given number of delegates you may as well go as a delegate.

Just a Reminder

I hope you have received an invitation to the Celebration of Pennsylvania's 300th Anniversary from:
