The next meeting of the Harris Ferry Chapter, SAR, will be held at the Bonanza Serloin Pit at 4200 Union Deposit Road (Across the street from the Union Deposit Mall) on the 6th of October 1981.

Time: 6:30 P.M.

Our speaker for the evening will be Mr. Sammy V.C. Snider, a former U-2 pilot who was a co-work with Gerry Powers in aerial surveillance. Mr Snider will tell us some about the workings of the spy-planes and their accomplishments. It should be a very interesting and informative meeting.

This meeting is somewhat of an experiment in that advance payment will not be required. The Bonanza serves in a semi-cafeteria style and each one orders and pays for what he wants, when you go through the line you pick up your salad and dessert and side dishes and the main order is served at your table. We have a private room reserved for the evening, but they would like to know in advance how many to expect, so please mail or phone your reservation prior to the 2nd of October if possible.
