WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY MEETING: The details are given on the inclosed card. However we are pleased to announce that speaker will be Rev. Paul W. Stauning, formerly pastor of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, now Director of Developement and Community Relations at the Polyclinic Hospital. Rev. Stauning's talk will be "Washington's Three Great Crises", the talk for which he was awarded the George Washington Gold Honor Medal by the Freedoms Foundation.

HANSON STAMP: The stamp on this envelope has a good portrait of John Hanson an American Revolutionary leader and the first President under the Articles of Confederation. He was elected for a period of one year. He is sometimes referred to as "the first president of the United States," but he was a congressional presiding officer and had none of the powers of the president under the Constitution.

In 1981 we celebrated the Bicentennial of the winning of the Battle of Yorktown, however the Revolution did not end until the signing of the peace treaty in 1983.
