HARRIS FERRY ACCORDED HONOR OF BEING NAMED 1982 WINNER OF SAR "CHAPTER ACTIVITIES" AWARD

Selection of Harris Ferry Chapter as the 1982 winner of the Chapter Activities Trophy of the Pennsylvania Society of SAR, was announced at the state society's annual meeting, held on May 14, at the Marriott Hotel, at Monroeville.

Karl E. Katz, of York, well known to many of our chapter members for the years he served as SAR regional representative for this area, is now president of the Pennsylvania Society of SAR.

CHAPTER SUPPORTS EAGLE SCOUT PROJECT

In support of SAR's Eagle Scout Program, nationally, the Harris Ferry Chapter this year will cooperate with the Keystone Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, in honoring the area's 1983 class of Eagle Scouts, encouraging them to participate in SAR's new scholarship competition.

William J. Hawkins, Scout Executive for the Keystone Council Area, after meeting recently with state and chapter SAR representatives, offered to assist the chapter in bringing the contest to the attention of eagle scouts at the annual dinner held in their honor in the fall.

Compatriot Ronald F. Walters, will be chapter chairman of the Eagle Scout honor program.

DICKINSON CADET RECEIVES ROTC MEDAL

Brian S. Abraham, Dickinson College freshman from the Baltimore area, was the recipient of the ROTC bronze medal for achievement, presented by Harris Ferry Chapter, on April 23, at the annual Dickinson ROTC "dining in" ceremony, at the Army War College Officers Club, in Carlisle. The presentation was made by Chapter President LTC George E. Reed, himself a Dickinson alumnus and grandson of a former college president.

We are pleased to welcome as a new member Robert T. Coleman, of 304 High St., Summerdale.

With sorrow, however, we note the passing of Edward A. Linhart, of Hershey, who died Apr. 17.
