War College Speaker to Discuss Middle East

WITH SO MUCH INTEREST now focused upon the Iraq-Kuwait crisis and the Middle East in general, such will be the topic of the chapter's quarterly dinner meeting Friday evening, September 21, at the Officers Club, at Carlisle Barracks. The War College has promised us a speaker well qualified to discuss that subject, but at this writing, the name of the speaker has not yet been announced.

The dinner, scheduled for 6:45, will be preceded by a cash-bar reception beginning at

AREA EAGLE SCOUT PROJECT

Harris Ferry Chapter for an 8th successive year, will participate in the "Eagle Scout Scholarship" Competition sponsored nationally by SAR. The Chapter will present SAR certificates to the 80 or more new Eagle scouts of the 4-county area who will be honored by the Keystone Area Council at its annual Eagle Recognition dinner here on November 20.

As in the past, the area winner of the contest will be honored by the chapter in February at the annual George Washington Dinner.

CHAPTER BOARD MEETING

Chapter President Col. David E. Thompson has asked that members of the Chapter Board of Management be present for a brief meeting at the Officers Club at 5:30 on September 21, just prior to the reception and dinner.

New Members

Two new applications received by the Chapter and now awaiting final approval by SAR are:

George E. E. Kreider, 23, of 26 Long Road, Freehold, N.J., and Richard H. Hauck, of 96 Sunnyside Drive, Carlisle.

Recently approved by SAR was the membership of George M. Myers and the transfers in of Frederic and David C. Cox, all residing in Camp Hill.
