Former NATO Staff Officer to be Speaker

Col. Robert Kee, former staff assistant to the Supreme Allied Commander at NATO Headquarters, Europe, will be guest speaker at the chapter's 50th Annual Dinner, on December 9.

Now on his second tour of duty at the Army War College, Carlisle, Colonel Kee is on special assignment on the staff of the Commanding General there. A West Point graduate, he is also a graduate of the Ecole Militaire Superieur — the Army War College of France.

CHAPTER HONORS 91 NEW EAGLES

SAR Eagle Certificates of Recognition were presented by Harris Ferry Chapter to 91 new Eagle Scouts who attended the annual Eagle Recognition Dinner of Keystone Area Council of BSA, on November 20 at the Harrisburg Marriott.

The scouts were also given kits containing details concerning the $5,000 scholarship competition sponsored annually by SAR nationally for each year's class of new Eagle Scouts.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR '91

Chapter officers for 1991 will be elected on Sunday evening, December 9, when Harris Ferry Chapter holds its 50th Annual Meeting, at the Inn of Blue Mountain.

CHAPTERS GAINS THREE MEMBERS

Harris Ferry Chapter now is pleased to welcome three new members, whose applications have been approved by SAR since our last meeting:

Claude Lewis, Jr., of 627 Belvedere St., Carlisle, PA.
George E. E. Kreider, 23, of 26 Long Rd. Freehold, NJ
Richard H. Hauck, of 95 Sunnyside Dr., Carlisle.
