Chapter Honors the Area's 88 New Eagle Scouts

Eighty-eight new Eagle Scouts of the four-county area of Dauphin, Cumberland, Perry and Franklin counties were awarded SAR Recognition Certificates by Harris Ferry Chapter on November 21, when they attend the Keystone Area Council's 21st Annual Eagle Recognition Dinner at the Radisson Penn-Harris Convention Center, in Camp Hill.

David E. Hartman, Chapter Eagle Committee chairman, said the 88 new Eagles were also given details concerning the Eagle Scholarship Contest sponsored by SAR nationally, in cooperation with the Boy Scouts of America. He noted that this is the eleventh year in which Harris Ferry Chapter has served as local sponsor of the contest in the four county area.

Judge Hoover to Address Our 55th Annual Meeting

The Hon. Todd A. Hoover, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, will speak on "Law and Order," as guest speaker of the 55th Annual Meeting on Thursday evening, December 7, at The Arches Restaurant, Harrisburg.

A graduate of Upper Dauphin High School and Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Judge Hoover received his law degree at the Delaware Law School, and had served as an Assistant DA in both Philadelphia and Harrisburg prior to his 1994 election to Dauphin County Court.

Another special guest at the meeting will be M/Gen. Donald J. Tressler, of State College, State President of SAR, who has agreed to be present to install the new chapter officers being elected for 1996.

SAR Annual Dues for 1996

More than two-thirds of the members of Harris Ferry Chapter have already paid their annual dues for 1996. The ones from whom payment has not yet been received  will find a second notice enclosed with this Newsletter.

Chapter Gains New Member

Harris Ferry Chapter is pleased to welcome another addition to our rolls in the person of Col. John Frederick Mencer, 75, of 308 Holly Hall, Middletown, by transfer of membership from the Philadelphia Continental Chapter. He has been an SAR member since 1983.
