Chapter to Honor Eagles of Four-County Area

Harris Ferry Chapter will present SAR Recognition Certificates to the 90 or more new Eagle Scouts of the four-county area of the Keystone Council of Boy Scouts of America, on Tuesday evening, November 26, when the Council holds its 22nd Annual Eagle Recognition Dinner here, at Zembo Mosque.

Compatriot David E. Hartman, chairman of the chapter's Eagle Scout Committee, noted that this is the 12th year of Harris Ferry Chapter's local sponsorship of SAR's annual Eagle Scout Scholarship Competition, for which the two national prizes are $5,000 and $1,000 respectively.

56th ANNUAL MEETING - DEC. 6

Dr. James R. Etters, of Perkasie, State President of SAR, will be guest speaker at the Chapter's 56th Annual Meeting, Friday evening, Dec. 6, at The Arches.

Senator Will Be Speaker for September 20 Dinner

State Senator Jeffrey E. Piccola, of Harrisburg, will be guest speaker at our Constitution Week Dinner on September 20, at the New Cumberland Army Base, in observance the 209th anniversary of the adoption of the U.S. Constitution at Philadelphia on September 17, 1787.

After serving 17 years in the State Legislature, Piccola was elected to the Senate last year to fill the unexpired term of Senator Shumaker, and now is up for reelection for a full term.

During his last year in the lower house, he distinguished himself as House prosecutor in the unusual circumstances of an impeachment of an appellate court judge.

A native of Harrisburg and an attorney, Senator Piccola is a graduate of Susquehanna Township High School, Gettysburg College and the George Washington University School of Law.
